Columbus, a trip to the past

Visit numerous points of interest in the old town of Las Palmas, in the neighborhood of Vegueta and Triana: The Casa de Colón A museum dedicated to the discoverer, and the Ermita de San Antonio Abad B (where the marine prayed before based on their trip); contemporary art museums (in Centro

Atlántico de Arte Moderno C and San Martín Centro de Cultura Contemporánea D), the Museo Canario E, where you can see mummies and Aboriginal traces of their culture; and the Casa-Museo Pérez Galdós F, dedicated to the universal figure of the canary writer, whose presence is still palpable in the city (with a theater that bears his name, several monuments and even a whole neighborhood, that of Schamann, in the Upper Town whose streets and squares are baptized with the names of his novels and characters.

The imposing Catedral G and the Casas Consistoriales H make the Plaza de Santa Ana I one of the biggest attractions of the Atlantic capital and, don't forget to stop by at the Castillo de Mata J.

British quaintness and fingerprints

Road to Playa de Las Canteras, visitors can enjoy a stop in the architectural complex of the Pueblo Canario K, designed in the late thirties by the modernist artist Néstor Martín-Fernández de la Torre, which includes a museum dedicated to the work of this singular painter and promoter of quaintness canary.

Or pause in the current municipal offices, the old Hotel Metropole, where still remembered with a plaque passage of a distinguished guest in the decade of the 20s: the British writer Agatha Christie.

Ocean City

Already in the Isthmus, the visitor finds aside Las Canteras L, one of the best urban beaches in the world, and the other, the main cruise port in Spain during the winter season, the Puerto de La Luz and Las Palmas. The average annual temperature in the city (21 degrees) make the ride grateful for all seasons for these enclaves, open to the sea and dressed with singular points, as the Museo Elder de la Ciencia y la Tecnología M, the Mercado del Puerto N (whose design is attributed to engineers from the Eiffel firm in the late nineteenth century), the spectacular Auditorio Alfredo Kraus O or Martín Chirino Foundation, which has been installed in the old fortaleza del Castillo de La Luz P. In addition you will find a special tourist information point in the Parque Santa Catalina: la Casa del Turismo, also designed by Nestor in the 30's.

Shopping City

Las Palmas has large open shopping areas and includes a large number of shopping centers with all kinds of shops.

In Triana you can find top international brands and fashion stores by reference; the Puerto y Mesa y López the most diverse and cosmopolitan shops, and in Guanarteme all for surfing; without forgetting that sea lovers have their shops in Marina LPA.

Another attractions is the network of markets with the best fresh produce from the island, including the Mercado de Vegueta Q, the Central or the one at the Puerto. Sunday in San Lorenzo, the farmer's market is the best choice and in Vegueta, the craft market and culture.
